

Deadline: August 6th, 2010

Raffles are permitted at the 25th Annual Meeting. However, raffle prizes are considered gifts and are subject to

Criteria for raffle prizes: Giveaways must be educational in nature and of minimal value. A Company may not give Attendees any type of non-educational branded promotional items, even if the item is of minimal value and related to the Attendee’s work or for the benefit of patients. Examples of non-educational branded promotional items include pens, notepads, mugs, and other items that have a Company’s name, logo, or the name or logo of one of its products.

Value of items: Other than medical textbooks or anatomical models used for educational purposes, any such item should have a fair market value of less than $100.

Electronic Prizes: Educational software or educational (not entertainment) “apps” would be appropriate gifts. Such gifts would have to be specific, i.e. giving the specific app NOT an iTunes gift card. A Company may not provide items that are capable of use by the Attendee (or his or her family members, office staff or friends) for non-educational or non-patient-related purposes, for example, a DVD player, Wii, iPad or MP3 player/I-Pod.
